BIO

Michelle Lisa Herman is an emerging interdisciplinary artist who combines new media elements, such as audio and visual projections, into sculptural installations. Her work explores the ideas of communication, the need to connect with others, and how we view our world.

She has most recently exhibited her work at the Washinton Project for the Arts in Inter-Net, a solo exhibition part of the Coup D'Espacé series as well as the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Synergy, an exhibition featuring the DCCA's 2011 Visual & Media Artist Fellows.
